

Eastside Legal Assistance Program (ELAP) 2013 Review

Program Highlights:

In 2013, ELAP provided services to 869 low income clients and survivors of domestic violence (representing 2086 people) through over 1003 appointments. Services were provided in a variety of ways.

Advice Clinics, including specialty clinics for family law, domestic violence, immigration, and bankruptcy issues.

Wills Project, providing will preparation, powers of attorney, and physician's directives.

Full Legal Representation beyond advice clinics for critical needs.

The Domestic Violence Legal Project, providing extensive advice and limited representation for survivors of domestic violence.

Lectures for general help on various legal issues.

In 2013 ELAP also provided on-site services in various issues of general law, met the legal needs of immigrants and addressed the housing and family law issues of homeless men and women. Over 117 volunteer attorneys provided legal services to ELAP clients.

Financial Highlights:

Pro bono hours provided by volunteer attorneys in 2013 totaled over 4,033 hours. If billed at $300/hour, these services would be valued at $1,209,000. In addition, clinic intake support staff, administrative support and other volunteers donated 3,400 hours for a total of over 7,433 volunteer hours.

"I could not have achieved the results of the court hearing without your [ELAP's] support and willingness to use your expertise."

[About a volunteer attorney]
"Offering exceptional legal services to those of limited means made my wife and I feel like someone does care about the 'little guy.'"

"... (you) made me feel for the first time, the quality of my life was worth defending ..."
