

Eastside Legal Assistance Program (ELAP) 2014 Review

Program Highlights:

In 2014, ELAP provided services to 921 low income clients and survivors of domestic violence (representing 2,209 people) through over 1085 appointments. Services were provided in a variety of ways.

Advice Clinics, including specialty clinics for family law, domestic violence, immigration, and bankruptcy issues.

Wills Project, providing will preparation, powers of attorney, and physician's directives.

Domestic Violence Legal Project, providing extensive advice and limited representation for survivors of domestic violence using DV Staff Attorneys, ELAP Family Law Fellowship volunteer attorneys, and ELAP DV / Family Law Corps volunteer attorneys.

Lectures for general help on various legal issues.

In 2014 ELAP also provided on-site services in various issues of general law, met the legal needs of immigrants and addressed the housing and family law issues of homeless women. Over 140 volunteer attorneys provided legal services to ELAP clients.

Financial Highlights:

Pro bono hours provided by volunteer attorneys in 2014 totaled over 4,889 hours. If billed at $300/hour, these services would be valued at $1,476,600. In addition, clinic intake support staff, administrative support and other volunteers donated 3,332 hours for a total of over 8,221 volunteer hours.

"I could not have achieved the results of the court hearing without your [ELAP's] support and willingness to use your expertise."

[About a volunteer attorney]
"Offering exceptional legal services to those of limited means made my wife and I feel like someone does care about the 'little guy.'"

"... (you) made me feel for the first time, the quality of my life was worth defending ..."
